ACTION REQUIRED: None

1. The individual mentioned in paragraph 3.e.2 of Reference is former KUBARK agent CAMISE. Since the KUBARK/CAMISE relationship was terminated five years ago, we shall synopsise the CAMISE operation briefly for your ready information.

a. Before working for KUBARK, CAMISE worked for the Abwehr from 1940-45. She was employed first as a secretary, then as a translator and interpreter. Her most noteworthy assignment for the Abwehr was in connection with procuring the secret papers, correspondence and diaries of Identity 1, some of which she later translated.

b. Her association with KUBARK began in 1945. During the next 6 years she was utilized in four different capacities:

- (1) "sitting duck" operation - employed in CAMUS to attract Russian recruitment approaches
- (2) Informant on RSHA activities
- (3) head of Frankfurt Bureau of Identity 2 (she was in contact with CAMLET and knew of our relationship with him, as did he of hers)
- (4) information source in Bonn while West German correspondent of Identity 2, where she had many contacts in SPD, labor, government and diplomatic circles.

2. In late 1951 she married the subject of paragraph 3.e.1 of Reference, who was then reported to be editor-in-chief of [ ] MIPA-5911, dated 14 December 1959, states that he was a pre-Hitler social-democrat; that he was drafted into the German army and sent to France where he promptly deserted and joined the Maquis; that in 1944, following the liberation of southern France by the U.S. 7th army, he worked for Army Special Services Division organizing travelling shows along USO lines; and that after the war he worked on various British Zone newspapers and since 1947 had been with [ ]

3. A further sidelight on this matter was given by [ ] former CAMISS case officer. [ ] states that while in Bonn CAMISS became a close friend and confidant of [ ] and that through him she learned of my support of [ ] It is interesting to speculate on the possibility that CAMISS' husband, assuming he is identical to speculates on the mentioned in paragraph 1.c. of MIPA-11771, might also be aware of a [ ] CUYOKE relationship, and armed with that knowledge helped Etakorn formulate the press proposals.

b. Any light you can shed on this matter will be appreciated.
